PASSING IT ON.

A Sunday-school teacher, after conducting a lesson on the story of "Jacob's Ladder," concluded by saying:
"Now, is there any little girl or boy who would like to ask a question about the lesson?"

Little Susie looked puzzled for a moment, and then raised her hand.
"A question, Susie?" asked the teacher.

"I would like to know," said Susie,
"if the angels have wings, why they have to climb up the ladder?"

The teacher thought for some moments, and then, looking about the class, asked: "Is there any little boy who would like to answer Susie's question?"—Everybody's Magazine.

Shortly After District
Attorney's Return

The trial in the United States district court of District Attorney Jeff McCarn, under indictment by the federal and territorial grand juries on a charge of assault with a weapon upon Attorney Claudius McBride, this morning was set for September 9 by has been received by local federal court officials to the effect that Mr.

McCarn will return to Honolulu from Washington, D. C., September 8.

Attorney J. Lightfoot, counsel for the district attorney, appeared before Judge Dole and asked that the case against Mr. McCarn be set for trial at as early a date as possible. Alexander Lindsay, Jr., special assistant to the attorney-general that was present when Attorney Lightfoot made his appointment as special assistant will continue until the McCarn case is disposed of in the federal court.

HILDAGO PEOPLE ARE OFFERED NEW SCHEME

As the outcome of a meeting of the reorganization committee of La Za-cualpa Rubber Plantation Company, La Zaccualpa Plantation Company and Hildago Plantation and Commercial Company held in San Francisco on July 21, which was attended by E. R.
Stackable as representative of the Hawaiian shareholders, a plan has been submitted to the shareholders in these companies, which was accepted and placed on file at the meeting held here last week. Its means proposition is to organize, under the laws of Nevada Zaccualpa Hildago Rubber Co., capital $4,000,000 in 800,000 shares of $5 each, 85 per cent paid-up and only 15 per cent assessable; no assessment to be levied the first year over 5 per cent, nor in succeeding years more than 2 1/2 per cent, until the stock is fully paid. Full paid stock in the new company is to be issued to shareholders in the old companies on the basis of 40 shares for each rubber acre, the balance to be held as treasury stock. The new company will assume all the debts of the old corporations. The local investigating committee recommends the formation of a new company, under the laws of Hawaii, to take up the mortgages on the coffee properties and operate them, for which San Francisco capital is available provided the Hawaiian shareholders contribute $150,000 to $200,000 as their share of the investment.
